

Hold Harmless

The undersigned hereby agrees to assume all risks of injury to my child and/or to myself, whether while on any part of the premises of the Mothers' Center for Fort Collins, Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church or elsewhere while attending any Mothers' Center function and whether such injury occurs by accident, by negligence or by any other cause whatsoever, the undersigned hereby releases Mothers' Center of Fort Collins and Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church located at 1200 South Taft Hill Road, Fort Collins, their representatives, teachers and attendants from liability for any injury whatsoever to my child and/or myself and hereby waives any claims that may arise due to hazardous conditions, so-called attractive nuisances, negligence and all other similar matters that may potentially cause injury to my child or to myself.

The undersigned especially understands that the nursery services being provided are principally for my convenience and are sponsored by non-profit organizations which must require this assumption of risk and release agreement in order to provide these services for me and others like me.

This release shall be continuing and shall apply to each and every time the undersigned uses the above nursery and church facilities or attends any Mothers' Center of Fort Collins function.
